

Digital Collections

Oral History Project 2026

Oral History Interview With Thelma Queen

Search This Record

Transcript

Video

Title Oral History Interview with Thelma Queen

Interviewee Thelma Queen

Interviewer Patricia L Peirson Maichle

Date Original February 18, 2026

Subject Speaking of the Past: Conversations with Long-Term Residents of Middletown, Delaware, 1900 - Present

Community Service Integration Family Heritage

Education Religion Social Activities

Keywords Middletown Family; Farming; History; Community; Integration; Religion; Industry; Social Activities

Description Thelma Queen describes Middletown and her family over the years of her lifetime living in the town. She talks about her occupations, and the change from segregation to integration that has been the history of the town. Thelma and her husband had two children.

Scope and contents The Oral History Project is a collection of interviews/remembered experiences of the long-term members of Middletown. The purpose of this project is to document the remembered history of town residents by examining their lives and careers through the lens of community historical culture.

Format transcripts, video recordings

Type text; image

Publisher Middletown Historical Society, Middletown, DE

Series Speaking of the Past: Conversations with Long-Term Residents of Middletown, Delaware, 1900 - Present

Collection Name Middletown Delaware Oral History Project

Coverage-Spatial Middletown Delaware

Coverage-Temporal 1900 – Present

Rights No permission is required from the Middletown Historical Society for education (or classroom) uses of this item. For other uses including any uses or commercial publication, you need to obtain permission from the Middletown Historical Society. For more information contact abbyharting@gmail.com.

Language eng

Identifier 2026.005.005-Queen.Thelma