

Middletown Historical Society

Middletown, Delaware

RECORDING INVENTORY SHEET

NARRATOR: Joanne Armstrong

ADDRESS: Middletown, Delaware

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION: Joanne Armstrong is a life long resident of Middletown, Delaware. Her family owned a large farm north of Middletown on Rt. 896. The original house that her ancestors built in the 1800s still stands and she lives in it with her husband. Her father was a dairyman and her mother grew a garden each year. Joanne spent her career as a Librarian, first at the Louis L Redding Middle School and then in Baltimore County, MD. She was instrumental in the start of an organization to address Progressive Super Nuclear Palsy.

DATE OF INTERVIEW: May 18, 2026

INTERVIEWER: Patricia L Peirson Maichle

LOCATION OF INTERVIEW: Appoquinimink Community Library, Middletown, DE

NUMBER OF DISKS/CASSETTES:

LENGTH OF DISKS/CASSETTES:

LENGTH OF INTERVIEW: 48:37

SUBJECTS DISCUSSED: Farming, Family Heritage, Education, Religion, Community History, Career

12/30/2025 PLM